SELECTION PROCESS

Application Review
The CDA receives new applications from the City of Tallahassee Human Resources Department weekly. The new applications and questionnaires are reviewed by the Administrative Services Office (ASO) to insure that all minimum requirements are met. If the ASO did not receive all required information the applicant will be contacted for the needed information. Once the ASO verifies the application meets the minimum requirements, the applicant is moved to the next step in the selection process.

Preliminary Criminal History Check
The applicant’s criminal history, if any, is reviewed.

CritiCall
The CritiCall tests the applicant’s ability to follow directions provided in writing and/or verbally, computer skills, multi-tasking, typing skills, and the ability to make decisions based on structured rules; however, no prior dispatching experience is necessary to successfully pass the test. The applicant is provided three hours to complete the test. In order to move forward in the selection process, the applicant must earn a minimum score of 80% and 28 WPM. The applicant will be notified by the ASO of their scores and whether the applicant is eligible to move to the next step.

Informal Interview
The applicant will be scheduled for a short informal interview with the Director and/or Assistant Director. The interview includes a preliminary review of the application packet.

Observation
The applicant is required to complete a four hour observation. During the observation, if workload allows, the applicant will be afforded the opportunity to experience non-emergency and emergency phone calls, law radio and fire radio. A description of the teletype responsibilities will be provided. The observation must be scheduled within 10 days of completing the informal interview. The applicant is required to submit an After Action Report (AAR) that should include the date, times, work stations, names of the communication operators the applicant was paired with during the observation and the applicant’s impressions regarding the activities observed.

Oral Board Interview
The ASO contacts the applicant to schedule an oral board interview. All applicants are asked the same set of questions during the interview and are scored on the following categories: relevant work experience, team fit, professionalism, career stability, character and ethics, and motivation to work. A summary sheet of each applicant’s interview will be reviewed and a consensus will be made on whether or not the applicant moves forward.

Polygraph Examination
The polygraph examination is an interview with the applicant concerning the applicant’s lifestyle, job history, and personal background. The applicant will be required to complete the Personal History Statement and the FDLE form 58 (Background Investigation Waiver) prior to being scheduled for the examination. A trained examiner conducts the polygraph. The ASO will schedule the examination Monday through Friday 8:00am-5:00pm, based on the availability of the examiner. The examiner will forward the polygraph results to the ASO which will then be given to the Director or designee for review. The results of the polygraph examination or other instruments for the detection of deception will not be used as the single determinant of employment status.
Conditional Offer
Upon favorable review of the polygraph results, the applicant will receive a conditional offer of employment which must be signed, witnessed and returned to the ASO. The conditional offer is contingent upon the successful completion of specific screening components which include a psychological evaluation, vision and hearing medical exam, background investigation, Director’s review, and drug screening.

Psychological Evaluation
The psychological evaluation is scheduled with a licensed psychologist, Monday through Friday 8:00am-5:00pm, based on the doctor’s availability. The psychologist will forward the psychological evaluation results to the ASO which will then be given to the Director or designee for review.

Medical Examination
All applicants who receive a conditional offer of employment will undergo a basic medical examination tailored to the specific job description for which they have applied to determine if the applicant is able to perform the essential functions of the position. The medical examination includes testing for vision and hearing. As an equal opportunity employer, the CDA is committed to the laws and regulations governing employment, including the Americans with Disabilities Act. Applicants will not be eliminated based on the medical examination unless they cannot perform the essential functions of the job with, or without, a reasonable accommodation.

Background Investigation
The background investigation is completed by trained personnel and includes the following:
- Review of the application and qualifying credentials.
- Review of criminal and driving history.
- Department of Health license check for prior Public Safety Telecommunication Certification (PSTC), if applicable.
- Search of Law Enforcement agency’s report database.
- Cyber vetting.
- A minimum of three professional or personal reference checks.
- Review of applicant’s employee records, if applicable.
- Follow up with applicant, if necessary.

Director Review
The Director or designee will review the application packet in its entirety which includes the interview summary sheet, polygraph examination results, background investigation summary and psychological evaluation results. A final interview by the Director may be requested in order to address any questions or concerns that may have arisen based on information received as a part of the hiring process.

Drug Screening
Upon favorable review of the entire application packet by the Director or designee, the applicant will be asked to complete a five panel drug screening. The drug screening cannot be completed more than 30 days prior to the start date of employment and must be taken prior to the applicant’s start date.

Formal Offer
A formal employment offer will be made to the selected applicant(s) upon successful completion of all required steps in the selection process. The applicant will be notified via email and or phone.
